At this chic buffet, the hand-shaped baguettes have been made from scratch. Try them fresh from the oven with butter and Bonne Maman confiture (fruit preserve)—it’s what the French call a tartine. In the mood for something savory? Find flavorful meats and cheeses that are a must-do. And don’t be afraid to mix something sweet with something savory. Pain au Chocolat? Slice of brie? Just say “Oui!” Why not try a little of everything? This may be the most delicious French breakfast on this side of the Atlantic!

The French family meal traditions are so glorious, they were recognized as part of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO in 2010. Each participant will leave with the “Best of Paul Bocuse” book with his greatest recipes step-by-step in pictures, to start their own family traditions! So join our family every week for a celebration of the art of good eating and drinking. Bon appetit!
