A LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Dear RPPTL Members:

Work. Learn. Meet. Repeat.

This is the theme for our RPPTL Convention to be held from June 1 – June 4 in quaint Bonita Springs. Our four-day Convention is packed with meaningful opportunities for our members and their families.

We Work through the committee meetings to be held on Thursday and Friday and the Real Property and Probate Roundtables and the Executive Council meeting on Saturday. For detailed information about what a specific committee is addressing, or to contact the committee chair about inquiring how you can become involved, please visit the committee page on our section website at www.rpptl.org.

We Learn through our substantive committee meetings and the CLE program on Friday morning. We are presenting a program titled “A Lawyer’s Guide to Disaster Preparedness, Insurance and Technology Security.” Importantly, attending this program will earn you 2 hours of the newly required Technology Credit hours.

We Meet other attorneys who practice in real estate, construction, probate, estate planning, trust administration and guardianship. We have the opportunity to visit with our sponsors and exhibitors. We network through our daily social events and dining opportunities and encourage you to bring your family so that they, too, can enjoy the many events that we have planned.

With four-days of events, you can Repeat the experience and you should mark your calendars for the RPPTL annual convention each year.

If you are not able to stay at Hyatt Coconut Point Resort and Spa, alternative accommodations are available:

- Hyatt Coconut Plantation (239-947-7300). Located next door to the resort and offers rooms with kitchens.
- Hyatt Place Coconut Point hotel (239-435-1395). Located 2 miles from the resort.
- Homewood Suites by Hilton Bonita Springs (239-949-5913). Located about 10 minutes from the resort.

I encourage you to participate as fully as your schedule will allow and ask you to invite other section members in your community or in your firm to join us. Additional details about the events are available in the registration package and on our website.

Sincerely,

Deborah P. Goodall
Chair

Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of The Florida
